4 GRAMMAR IN USE For 1–6, write the present perfect or the past simple of the verbs in brackets (). For A–D, write for, since or How long. 3.24 Listen and check.

- DOCTOR (0) How long... have you had this cold?
- PATIENT Well, I (00) 've had... (have) it for nearly two weeks, but I've had a cough for longer.
- DOCTOR How long have you had that?
- PATIENT I've had it (A) October, so more than a month. The thing is, I (1) (have) about five colds (B) the spring.
- DOCTOR That is a lot. (2) (you / have) a lot of colds last year, too?
- PATIENT No, not really. I think I (3) (have) only two all last year.
- DOCTOR Mmm, (4) (you / change) anything about your life this year?
- PATIENT Well, yes, my job. I work in a gym now. I'm a fitness trainer.
- DOCTOR I see. (C) have you worked there?
- PATIENT I (5) (start) the job in March, so I've been there (D) eight months. We've had a few customers with colds I suppose ...
- DOCTOR I see. And what was your job before?
- PATIENT I was a gardener. I worked by myself.
- DOCTOR Well, that's it. You (6) (spend) a lot of time close to people with colds, and you've caught their colds. Now, I think you should ...
