

Practice

1 Match the two parts of the sentences. 4.63 Listen and check.

- |                                      |                                |
|--------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 0 Our neighbours have got a swimming | A calorie diet.                |
| 1 Why don't you ask the taxi         | B known actress?               |
| 2 Is there a washing                 | C pool in their garden.        |
| 3 Last year we went snow             | D speed train to Madrid?       |
| 4 Zoe got a job as a French          | E machine in your house?       |
| 5 She's on a special low-            | F boarding in Switzerland.     |
| 6 Did you catch the high-            | G teacher at the local school. |
| 7 Is she related to that well-       | H driver for directions?       |

2 GRAMMAR IN USE Choose the correct words in italics in the text.

The story of IKEA

IKEA is one the most famous (0) shops of furniture (furniture shops) in the world. It has more than 300 stores and employs over 100,000 people. It was started by Ingvar Kamprad in Sweden in 1943.

The store is (1) well-known / very known for its (2) cheap-price / low-price furniture which customers have to put together at home. This is much cheaper than ordinary furniture. IKEA sells about 12,000 products; it has something for every room in the house – for (3) livings / living rooms, kitchens, bathrooms, dining rooms and (4) bedrooms / sleeping rooms.

All the stores are very large and (5) self-service / servng-yourself. They have enormous (6) car / cars parks. Shopping at IKEA is popular with families because every store has a safe place for children to play and a cheap restaurant. So if you get tired of shopping you can get a cup of coffee or an (7) ice cream / ices cream. It's like a huge (8) central-shopping / shopping centre inside one shop!

3 Each sentence contains a part of a compound word, but the other part is missing. Find the incomplete words. Then write the whole compound word. 4.64 Listen and check.

- Can you go to the (super) and buy me some bread? ..... supermarket .....
- Uncle Gerald doesn't work for a company – he's self .....
- Coca-Cola is a well company throughout the world. ....
- Our teacher wrote the answer on the white .....
- Can I pay by credit in this restaurant? .....
- We were late because there was a bad traffic on the motorway. ....
- Glenda is one of our part workers, so she isn't here on Tuesdays. ....
- How do you set the washing for a 40-degree wash? .....
- Johnny can afford a big house; he's got a very paid job. ....
- If you need to buy a new coat, there's a good clothes near me. ....
- I'm on a low diet because I want to get fitter. ....