Subject Greetings from the North

Hi Alison,
 I'm having a (0) time fantastic / fantastic time on this climbing trip. Yesterday we climbed Heston Tor. It was really (1) exciting / excited! It's (2) highest / the highest mountain around here. Everybody is very (3) tiring / tired today so we're all resting. I've attached a photo I took yesterday – you can see my brother Jack on the right – he's wearing a (4) nylon blue / blue nylon jacket. And that's Anna in the middle – she's my (5) nice Scottish / Scottish nice friend. She's (6) older / more old than (7) I / me and she's the (8) best / most good climber in the group. Everybody in the group (9) seems friendly / friendly seems and they are all very (10) interesting / interested. Tomorrow we are going to climb David's Rock. It's (11) dangerouser / more dangerous than the other mountains so we are all a little nervous. Our guide says the climb is (12) long difficult / long and difficult! But he says it's the (13) most exciting / excitingest mountain in the area. It's quite cold here so I'm glad I brought my (14) warm nice / nice warm jumper and my (15) thick cotton / cotton thick socks!
 Give my love to everyone at home.
