DogVacay

When dog owners have to go away without their pets, it can be challenging to find a kennel that will give their dog a loving, temporary home. DogVacay users offer to look after each others' dogs in their own homes. Your dog gets a friendly new home, and can make some new doggy friends!

Pley

Pley's co-founder Elina Furman had the idea for a 'Lego library' when she realized it could have saved her the $2,000 she'd spent on various sets sitting unused in the toy cupboard. She thinks toys are the perfect items to hire out, as children can get bored with them so quickly.

Campinmygarden

If you found you didn't have the budget even for Airbnb, you could get your tent out and use Campinmygarden to stay in someone's private garden for £10 a night.

Hundreds of gardens are available, all around the world, some of them conveniently close to city centres.

Stylend

If you spent £1,500 on that designer dress for a very special occasion, when would you ever wear it again? Would it spend the rest of its life in your wardrobe? On Stylend's site, women can see photos of other women's expensive clothes, which they can hire just for the day or evening.

TaskRabbit

TaskRabbit is an easy way to hire people to do jobs around the house for you. 'Taskrabbits' register with the company, and can bid to do jobs that people have posted on the website. Users could go for the lowest price, or rely on how other users have rated someone's work.

JustPark

JustPark makes it easy to profit from the parking space in front of your house by renting it to visitors to your area.

Drivers can use it regularly if they have to drive to work, or occasionally if they need a cheaper option to park near hospitals, airports, etc.
